Fat Shirley brings her ENORMOUS story to Edinburgh's Free Fringe for the first time – whooooyee!

“Fat Shirley’s, A Trailer Park Opera” is a simple tale about an American trailer park family.

Colourful characters paint a comedic picture in the true operatic sense focusing on love, loss and betrayal. Strung together with madcap songs provided by Bristol's Bluegrass/Americana band, The Hogranch.

“One of the best selling productions to be performed in our pub theatre, loved it!”

Bristol's Alma Tavern, Dec 2014

The Sing-a-Long Bit (at the end)

We're All Here Together:

We're all here together at Fat Shirleys Trailer Park,
and if you think its exciting in the daylight
you ought to be here after dark.

Gloryland:

Will there be trailer parks in Glory land
in the sweet bye and bye.

Will I have a corner plot and a brand new double wide?
If I could have a screened in porch
well that would be real grand,
a 4 wheel drive and a satellite dish
in my trailer in glory land!
